4. Reports and Correspondence

4.1 NWCAC Meet and Greet update

Three members of the NWCAC attending the Lakeshore Friendship Club's BBQ Supper on Sunday, July 26th. The members will provide an update.

Staff Comments: None at this time.

Action: The committee members that attended the Lakeshore Friendships Club dinner said they had good conversations with the community and was worth attending. Unfortunately, attendance was down this year. NWMO staff attended a Bruce Beach Cottagers Association meeting and had a good turn out to speak with residents. The NWMO will meet again with the Bruce Beach Cottagers Association on August 15th, 2015.

5. Nuclear Waste Management Organization Reports

5.1 NWMO Updates

NWMO will provide any updates to the committee.

Staff Comments: None at this time.

Action: Paul Austin stated that the open house direct mail ads were mailed out and radio ads and newsprint ads are complete advertising for the exhibit and transportation display in Point Clark August 14th and 15th. The NWMO has also mailed a second newsletter to all Huron-Kinloss residents.

5.2 NWMO presentation: An Overview of DGR Radiological Safety

Neal Hunt NWMO Manager, Used Fuel Safety Assessment will present an overview of DGR Radiological Safety.

Staff Comments: None at this time.

Action: Members of the public were interested to know more about the NWMO and the APM process and what the Township of Huron-Kinloss involvement is. The public was invited to visit the open house this weekend and the Learn More Centre in Ripley. It was also suggested for the public to visit the township website and to subscribe to e-newsletters and any updates or news on the township website.
